Chapter 1

It was a stormy night on the yellow planet of Decrom. In the main base office where the leader of the republic slouched sadly as he accepted that they were at war with the Zectorian overlords. Before, this the lathe system was peaceful as can be, but then the Zectorian empire invaded the Terran District a loyal ally to the Decrom Republic. The Terran District won the invasion but it put the space police on high alert. Usually the Zectorian empire was a grumpy but peaceful people, it was unusual for them to attack first, but The leader of the Decrom Republic was unsure it seems that they were acting a little strange. during the fight the commander was yelling "for Nuuke!" This was strange as it was unusual for a person to cheer for a weapon that dims the sun for a week straight. Then the commander in chief of the Decrom Republic pulled a lever telling every commander to meet in the hex. The hex is the center of the four quadrants that are civilized: Sanctuary, Providence, Ally, and Domain. In the middle of the hex there is a large box with four windows and a conference table in the center with the commanders and the supreme ruler of each system meet each month. But today was different for the commander of Decrom has called an emergency meeting.
